

Do You Have A Paper Problem?

Remove the Paper. Keep the Data.

Organizations desperately hold onto documents in order to retain critical information. But the most valuable thing isn't the paper, it's the information on it. What if you could remove the paper and just keep the data? That's why FCPA is offering, for a limited time, our simple, yet powerful PaperStream Capture Pro software bundled with Fujitsu's best-in-class production scanners. With it, you can:

1. Organize your documents and the metadata on them
2. Turn your documents into intelligent business data
3. Reduce document management errors
4. Minimize your reliance on IT resources
5. Eliminate physical storage space
